March 19, 2018

Come and experience the 2018 Gulf Coast Maker & Comic Con from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, March 24 at St. Petersburg College's Seminole Campus, 9200 113th St.

This event is a partnership with the Eureka Factory, Foundation for Community Driven Innovation and St. Petersburg College. They've joined forces to bring together two great events – Gulf Coast MakerCon and Pinellas Comic & Maker Con.

The event is free and open to the public, with exciting activities planned for people of all ages and interests.

This experience showcases and supports the innovative and entrepreneurial efforts of area makers across a wide range of fields including: mechanical, electrical, communications, transportation, hardware and software development, heritage crafts and trades, arts, music, gaming, modeling and simulation and STEM initiatives, as well as the art of cosplay, comics, anime, and sci-fi.

There will plenty to see and do, including:

- Exhibition Drone Races
- Electrathon Car Races
- Inventors & Entrepreneurs Showcase
- Makers Market Vendors
- Young Makers Village
- Workshops & Demos
- Deconstruction Zone
- Gaming Expo
- Heritage Makers (blacksmiths, weavers, woodworkers)
- Music Makers
- Transportation Exhibits
- Garden Tech & Sustainability
- 21st Century Tech
- Robotics and Mechatronics
- Comic exhibits & costume contests
